

Dear Home school support group or enrichment organization,

Home School From The Heart invites you to “Praying out God’s Plan”

An evening of praying for God’s plan in your family and home school for the upcoming school year.
Held at the Mardel’s at 51st and Harvard on Tuesday April 28th and May 13th from 7:00 -8:30.

I also invite you to bring information on your programs, curriculums, and activities to pass out to those in attendance We will be finishing praying at 8:00 and the last 30 minutes are specifically for browsing information on programs available to home school families. There will be no selling of materials at the meeting. It is for information only.

There is no cost for these events, but space is limited, so reserve your space now and come ready to pray for the upcoming year. I am expecting God to move in your homes and school experiences this next year.
